

Mr. Michalis Petrodaskalakis is a Director in Ernst & Young's Advisory Services practice in Athens, Greece, leading the Business Risk Services sub service line in Greece. He holds an MSc in Accounting & Finance from the Athens University of Economics and Business and a degree in Business Administration from the University of Piraeus. He is a member of the International Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) and of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners. Since January 2010 he serves as a BoD member in the Hellenic IIA. He is a Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) and holds a Certification in Control Self-Assessment (CCSA). In his capacity as director of Business Risk Services, he has conducted a number of external and in house trainings regarding Internal Audit and Internal Controls methodology. He has also devised and delivered lectures regarding Corporate Governance Principles, Internal Controls and Internal Audit at the ALBA Graduate Business School and the University of Piraeus. He has participated as a panelist in various conferences and committees regarding Corporate Governance and Internal Audit.